PRIORITY

Shortly after midnight Beirut time and just prior to President's speech I personally conveyed to Prime Minister Rashid Karamé (who is also Acting Foreign Minister) points set forth in Department circular telegram 705. Unfortunately due to transmission difficulties only first part of Department circular telegram 703 had been received (remainder still not received at 8 a.m.) and thus was unable at same time to deliver to Karamé text of President's speech. Full text received via wireless file was handed Karamé early in morning.

In serious, friendly tone but without committing GOL Karamé expressed general hope that "all will be well". He greatly appreciated being informed and welcomed our readiness to continue keep him informed.
